due him in connection with estate mat- any manner, that such a proceeding will ters of the late Antone Phillips or Fe. her property, thereby depriving the plainlipe. The plaintiff states that several tiff of any redress and making it imposyears prior to the bringing the action sible to enforce any judgment against on or about September 6, 1886, he was the attorney for a Hawalian woman named foster parent of Ana Momona the above named defendant. While acting as such attorney he proceeded against A. S. Cleghorn, the administrator of the estate of Antone Filipe, the deceased husband of his client, Ana Momona, to secure an accounting and procure for her an income from the estate in which she had a life estate. While the proceedings were pendingCastle states that Cleghorn, desiring to be relieved of the care of the estate, paid over to the plaint if certain funds of the estate. He alleges there was a balance of $1,900 due his client from Cleghorn, which he said he was unable to pay in cash, and offered to convey a certain parcel of land with the building thereon situate, at Waihee, Maul. In accordance with the practice of that date, the plaint if consulted Hon. L. McCully, the Justice of the Supreme Court, having cognizance of and jurisdiction of the proceedings in said estate; that said Justice gave an oral order that such proposition be accepted, and the plaintiff thereupon accepted such order. The premises were conveyed to the plaintiff in trust for the Filipe Estate, to use the income for said Ana Momona during her lifetime and after her death to go to the devisees named in the will. The late Ana Momona on November 13, 1889, substituted for plaintiff as her agent, the late Antone Rosa, and Ana Momona transferred all her business to him and requested plaintiff to deliver to Rosa all moneys and securities in his hands and to convey the land to Plaintiff states he delivered all such securities and moneys in his hands, except two mortgages, which are retained for settlement. He said he did not un. mediately make over said land, and that Post and Ana Momona constantly urged him to make the necessary deed for such purpose, and after some delay he ald so, but leaving in plaintiff's hands still unsettled one mortgage for $400 for fore. closure. Subsequently on March 13, 1594, vertised, but I could get no relief. Fithe mortgage having been foreclosed, the full amount was paid over to Ana Momona (not the present defendant) by delivery of the proceeds thereof to one Charles Demont as her attorney in mat, she to use the income from said funds The plaintiff states he has been informed and therefore believes that the $400 was used and expended by the said Ana Momona during her lifetime in im- my enthusiasm. I recommend this provements upon her own property, and that no part thereof has been paid to presented. You may publish my statethe devisees under the will of Antone Filipe, and that the premises were conveyed to Ana Momona, the present defendant, who was a membr of the family and principal of the estate to them; that a decree of the Circuit Court was given in FOR RECOVERY their favor; that in the action brought by Cleghorn against the plaintiff (Castle) as agent of Ana Momona, in which a decree was rendered against Cleghorn, A Rather Complicated Case holding that he, the plaintiff, and not Rosa or the others, became accountable to Cleghorn. Plaintiff demanded of defendant a reconveyance of said premises to Cleghorn and a return of the $400 with interest, but she refuses to execute the deed or return the money.

William R. Castle has brought suit in Castle alleges that he believes the dethe Circuit Court against Ana Momona fendant, if she knows of the proceedings for the recovery of $1,900 alleged to be instituted against her, or suspects in be instituted, will convey away all of

The plaintiff asks that she reconvey the Waihee premises and pay back the Ana Momona, who was, as he believes, $400; that she may be ordered to account for the Income and profits of said premises from the death of the first Ana Momona and pay the same into court, and that an injunction order be issued restraining her from conveying any of her

Rev. Frederick B. Meyer, who is known as "the Moody of England," recently arrived in this country to undertake a large work in the field of religious revival. He will conduct extended meetings in several of the leading cities of the country, including Cincinnati, Omaha, Richmond, Louisville, Atlanta and other cities of the west and south. This is Mr. Meyer's seventh visit to the United States. He came over from England in 1899 to assist the late Mr. Moody in his Northfield conference. When Dr. Mayer became an evangelist he gave up the pastorate of the aristocratic Regent Square Congregational church, of Loudon.

GUNNER CHARLES MORGAN.

Gunner Charles Morgan has recently come into prominence because of his application for promotion to the rank of ensign and the publication of Rear Admiral Samoson's letter to the secretary of the mavy in relation thereto. The admiral thinks maval officers should have refinement and other social qualifications. Morgan served under Sampson on the New York during the late war with Spain.
